

"The Complete Works of William Shakespeare [abridged]"

Audition Information

How to sign up for auditions:

Please contact the Grande Prairie Live Theatre Box Office (780-538-1616) to book a 20 minute time-slot on one of the following days:

- Saturday, September 14th between 1:00pm - 4:00pm at GPLT
- Sunday, September 15th between 6:30pm - 9:30pm at GPLT

If you are not available for any of the above dates, please text or call the Director (Caitlin Card) at 587-202-2273 to request an alternate audition time.

What to prepare:

Please read the excerpts provided in this audition package and choose two excerpts (including one Shakespeare) to read during your audition. You do not have to memorize them. Please choose from the excerpts provided in this audition package.

For this audition, preparing a monologue is optional. If you already have a 2-minute (or less) monologue you wish to show us, you may, but it is not required or expected.

What to bring to your audition:

- This audition package (with your form already completed)
- Pencil
- Water bottle
- Yourself, making sure to show up a bit early
- Acting choices, reactions, and active listening skills
- Willingness to experiment and play with new choices, if asked

Casting for: 3 actors to play "actors" who will each portray many Shakespearean characters. The actors in the script are named after the original authors, but the names can be adapted.

- Jess (Jessica, Jesse, etc) or your name
- Adam (Adelaide, Addy, etc) or your name
- Daniel (Danielle, Danny, etc) or your name

Important: This is an inclusive casting call, and we invite people of:

- Any gender-identity, non-binary identity, and LGBTQIA+ identity
- Any adult age (18+), any generation
- Any level of ability, or disability
- Any race, ethnicity, or creed