

The Fiancée by Holly Lewis

Audition Information

Auditions: Sunday, September 22 @ 6:30-8:30 pm and Monday, September 23 @ 6:30-8:30 pm.

Call the GPLT Box Office 780 538 1616 or email: Box.Office@gplt.ca to book an audition time.

Come and audition even if you have not pre-booked an audition time. We will fit you in.

This play has seven characters:

Lucy (the fiancée) – A Black Woman, late 20s to early 30s - An actress with a fantastic Josephine Baker cabaret act who has a really hard time saying, 'no'.

Rose (the older sister) – A Black Woman, late 20s to early 30s – A factory worker and Lucy's loyal sister.

Dick - (fiancé) - 20s to 30s - A remarkably good-looking soldier returning from the war.

Manny - (fiancé) - 20s to 30s - A meticulous soldier returning from the war, to his job as a department store manager.

Chester - 40s - A door-to-door salesman who has seen better days,

Clark - (fiancé) - 30s - An impressive captain returning from the war. Thirties.

Ms. Crotch - 50s - The new landlady, a powerhouse.

To prepare for this audition:

You will be asked to sign your agreement to follow the GPLT Safety and Inclusion Policy and the GPLT Violence, Harassment Reporting and Resolution Procedures 2024.

Here are GPLT's Safety and Inclusion Policy and GPLT's Violence and Harassment Reporting and Resolution Procedures:

Please read the script before you come to the audition

You cannot prepare for this audition in advance.

You will be asked for an impromptu reading choosing from several short passages from random sources not related to this play. You cannot prepare for this reading in advance.

You will be asked to tell an impromptu story using one line of dialogue that will be given to you in your audition. You cannot prepare in advance for telling this story.

Perusal copies of the script are available from the GPLT Box Office for a $5 refundable deposit.

The rehearsal and performance schedule as of June 2, 2024 is available..